

The physician assistant program cultivates competent, employable graduates as evidenced in:

1. Strong PANCE pass rates - See PANCE scores under program goals
2. High graduation rates

Graduation Rates	Graduating Cohort
	Class 2020	Class 2021	Class 2022
Entering class size	48	48	48
On-time Graduation	48 (100%)	46 (96%)	Pending
Attrition	0 (0%)	2 (4%)	Pending

3. Standardized Exam Rates that match the national average:

PACKRAT I and II National Exams

The PACKRAT is a national comparative exam that is designed as a self-assessment tool for students. The exam is given in June of a student's first professional year and again in April of the second professional year.
